

CRITICAL EXPOSURE PRESENTS

PICTURE EQUALITY:

AN EVENING OF EMPOWERMENT THROUGH PHOTOGRAPHY

Reception & Silent Photography Auction

November 12, 2009 | 6:30-9:30 pm
3338 M Street NW in Georgetown

Critical Exposure invites you to attend our second annual fundraiser: an evening to celebrate the power of photography. Join us for cocktails, appetizers, and the opportunity to bid on stunning photographs donated by world-class photographers like Ed Kashi, Ami Vitale, and Damon Winter, while supporting our programs for DC youth.

Tickets are $75 ($65 prior to Nov. 1) and include wine, beer, and appetizers. All proceeds will provide more opportunities for DC youth to learn documentary photography and leadership skills.

Tickets may be purchased at www.criticalexposure.org/auction. Sponsorship opportunities between $250-$10,000 are also available. Please direct any questions to Claire Allen at claire@criticalexposure.org or at (202) 745-3745 x 20.

A limited number of tickets are available.

Critical Exposure is a Washington, DC-based nonprofit that teaches middle and high school students to use the power of photography and their own voices to become effective advocates for school reform and social change.

We are proud to be part of the second annual FotoWeek DC and extend many thanks to Theo Adamstein, FotoWeek DC Founder & President, and our sponsor, Pilot Imaging.
